

2026 ACSM Industry Workshop Application & Contract

Stand out in the crowd with an Industry Workshop!

- Interact with attendees in an intimate theater setting.
- Highlight and demonstrate new and existing products.
- Provide up-to-date research findings or in-depth product details

Industry Workshops are 45-minute sessions that provide a focused, high-value live marketing opportunity for exhibitors to reach motivated professionals in a prescheduled, private session.

Scheduled throughout the day at the Walter E. Washington Convention Center, Industry Workshops are a forum to gather and discuss issues on patient education, specific products, and therapeutic areas with company representatives or your designees.

ACOG recognizes that Industry Workshops will be promotional and may concentrate on a specific product or drug. These sessions are not approved for continuing education credits.

All Industry Workshop sessions will be assigned on a first-come, first-served basis. Industry Workshops will be available in breakfast, lunch, and evening reception time slots, with buffet-style food and beverage service provided by ACOG. Exhibitors to select the best time of day to suit presentation needs.

Industry Workshops include:

- Meeting space.
- Standard AV equipment including a riser, standing lectern, wireless lavaliere microphone, panel table, LCD projector, screen, and sound system.
- (2) Lead retrieval units and post-session registrant list.
- A pre-conference e-blast highlighting all Industry Workshops (copy must be provided by the deadline).
- A listing in the Annual Meeting App & on the ACSM website. (must meet deadline for inclusion)
- Pre-Registration services.
- (4) staff badges for use in the Industry Workshop room and exhibit hall only.

Promotional Brochures, Invitations, and Signage

ACOG does not endorse, recommend, or promote any products or services related to Industry Workshops. There can be no implication in any promotion materials, handouts, or enduring materials that the Industry Workshops are planned, sponsored by, or endorsed by ACOG.

All announcements and invitations should clearly indicate on the "COVERS" the name(s) of the sponsoring organization for each Industry Workshop, and the source of financial support, if any, for the event. The materials in no manner may imply, either directly or indirectly, that the program is a part of or an official activity of ACOG.

No promotional materials for an Industry Workshop may use language or terms such as "presented during," "presented in conjunction with," "preceding," "prior to," "following," "live from," or statements similar in nature.

The use of ACOG's acronym, logo, name, or 2026 Annual Clinical and Scientific Meeting artwork, or any representations thereof shall be only at the express written consent of ACOG.

Signage may only be placed directly outside of the assigned meeting space. Due to the central location of the Industry Workshops within the convention center, signage outside the meeting room may include the program title, speaker name/s, and company name but MAY NOT include either a company logo or product logo. Within the room (and for sessions in the Exhibit Hall), logos may be used. All signage must be submitted for approval prior to production.

Organizations may only advertise, promote, or distribute information using ACOG's marketing opportunities. At no time is the distribution of promotional materials permitted beyond assigned exhibit booth and is not permitted anywhere within the convention center, hotel lobbies, shuttle buses, restrooms, or other common areas. Unapproved signs/flyers will be removed without advance notice and destroyed.

All marketing and promotional materials for an Industry Workshop must include the following statement:

"This Industry Workshop is a promotional activity and is not approved for continuing education credit. The content of this Industry Workshop and opinions expressed by presenters are those of the sponsor or presenters and not of the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists."

ACOG's Meetings & Exhibits Department must approve, prior to printing, all promotional announcements, invitations and all materials including websites, broadcast email messages, and other materials intended for distribution to 2026 Annual Clinical and Scientific Meeting registrants to promote an Industry Workshop presentation. In addition, all advertisements or invitation brochures must be approved in order to participate in any of ACOG's marketing opportunities. All materials must be distributed through one of ACOG's marketing opportunities.

Leadership Participation

Elected officials and chairs of committees and subcommittees directly and currently involved in the 2026 Annual Clinical and Scientific Meeting CME program are prohibited from participation in Industry Workshops, except as attendees who receive no honoraria or reimbursement. ACOG reserves the right to reject any proposed faculty member that it deems may have a conflict of interest with ACOG's 2026 Annual Clinical and Scientific Meeting activities.

Disputes

Industry Workshop organization, their employees, agents, and vendors agree that any legal disputes, suits, or actions between ACOG and an Industry Workshop organization resulting from the participation in the Industry Workshop or related activities of the ACOG 2026 Annual Clinical and Scientific Meeting will be governed by the laws of the District of Columbia without regard to conflicts of law principles and shall be adjudicated exclusively in the courts located within the District of Columbia. Industry Workshop organization hereby consents to personal jurisdiction and venue in the District of Columbia.

Term and Termination

This Agreement is effective as of the date of last signature and will terminate (i) upon conclusion of the post promotion of the exhibits, or (ii) upon the occurrence of a material breach (including failure to make timely payments) by either party if such breach is not cured within thirty (30) days after written notice of such breach is received, or (iii) upon thirty (30) days' notice by ACOG to Exhibitor, with or without cause. In the event of termination for material breach by ACOG, or termination without cause by ACOG, ACOG will refund payments made by Exhibitor. Upon any termination of this Agreement, all rights, and privileges for use of the other party's Intellectual Property shall expire and each party shall discontinue the use of the other party's Intellectual Property.

Cancellation Policy

Upon cancellation, 100% of the total amount is due with no refunds. In the event that the ACOG 2026 Annual Clinical and Scientific Meeting is postponed due to any occurrence not occasioned by the conduct of ACOG or the sponsor, whether such occurrence be an act of God; the common enemy; the result of terrorism, war, riot, civil commotion, sovereign conduct; widespread dissemination of an infectious disease; declaration or continuation of a pandemic; curtailment of transportation facilities; or the act or conduct of any third party (individually and collectively referred to as the "Occurrence"), then the performance of the parties of their respective meeting obligations shall be excused for such period of time as is reasonably necessary after the Occurrence to remedy the effects thereof. If the Occurrence results in the cancellation of the ACOG 2026 Annual Clinical and Scientific Meeting, the obligations of and the performance by the parties under applicable agreements shall automatically be terminated and all payments shall be refunded to Sponsor, less any pro-rata adjustments based on non-reimbursable direct and/or indirect event costs or financial obligations incurred by ACOG through the date of sponsors' notification of event termination or cancellation or through the completion of event termination or cancellation processes, whichever is later.

Limitation of Liability

The American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists and the Walter E. Washington Convention Center will not be responsible for any loss, injury, or damage whatsoever arising from participation in the Industry Workshop or related activities. The sponsor expressly releases the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists and the Walter E. Washington Convention Center from any and all claims, injury, or damage arising from the content, behaviors, or other activities related to the Industry Workshop.

Compliance

ACOG reserves the right to remove any Industry Workshop or bar future sponsorship participation if, in ACOG's opinion, the organization disregards or refuses to observe ACOG's rules, policies, written or verbal instructions or if ACOG determines that the material is offensive or not in keeping with the professionalism or standards of the practice of obstetrics and gynecology. If an organization's removal does occur, ACOG will neither refund the Industry Workshop fee paid nor pay for the organization's losses such as fees associated with the Industry Workshop.

If, in ACOG's opinion, a sponsor flagrantly disregards ACOG's guideline(s), policies, or directives, ACOG reserves the right to impose an appropriate penalty which may not be stated above. By signing (physically or electronically) the Industry Workshop Application/ Contract, the Organization agrees to abide by all of the requirements contained in this Industry Workshop Application and Contract, ACOG Meetings Anti-Harassment Policy, ACOG's Statement of Values, ACOG's Whistleblower Policy (together "ACOG Meetings Policies"), and any correspondence from ACOG to the sponsor/sponsoring company, their staff, officers or agents. Together, these documents comprise the contract between ACOG and the Industry Workshop organization.
